RED CROSS WORK

DEPARTMENT HEADS PRESENT REPORTS AT SPECIAL MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

A special meeting of the chairmen of the various committees of the Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross was held at the home of J. H. Braly, chairman of the chapter, 205 North Brand boulevard, Tuesday evening, November 13. The secretary Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, read the minutes of the preceding meetings, after which a communication was read from Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, chairman of the Nurses' Training committee, in which she stated that on account of ill health it would be necessary for her to give up her work as chairman of that committee. A motion prevailed accepting the resignation of Mrs. Hutchinson. Chairman Braly in behalf of the officers of the chapter, expressed sincere regrets that it had become necessary for Mrs. Hutchinson to discontinue the valuable work she has been doing at the head of this very important committee.

The following resolution was presented and after being read the same was adopted: The Board of Directors and the chairmen of the various committees of the Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross in special session at the home of J. H. Braly, chairman, take pleasure in extending a vote of thanks to the fifty men who so successfully conducted the recent drive at which more than $6000 was pledged, and a vote of thanks is also extended to the citizens of the community who have so generously contributed to this very deserving cause.

On motion Mrs. H. D. Thaxter was elected to succeed Mrs. Hutchinson as chairman of the Nurses' Training committee. Mrs. Thaxter has been a trained nurse and is in every particular well fitted to serve in this capacity.

A report was read by the secretary which had been carefully prepared by Mrs. Hutchinson, giving a brief synopsis of the work now being done in the department of which she has been the chairman. The report stated that there is at present a nurse training class with a membership of 20 ladies, being conducted by Mrs. Tufts who is a trained nurse, and there is a class in first aid being taught by Dr. R. E. Chase. This class has a membership of 17 ladies, and is the second class that is being instructed by Dr. Chase since the Glendale chapter of the American Red Cross was organized.

Mrs. A. S. Chase, chairman of the shipping committee, reported that four large boxes of finished garments had been shipped to the Red Cross headquarters at San Francisco. E. D. Yard made the boxes in a very substantial manner and the boxes were carefully packed to their utmost capacity with articles as enumerated in the Evening News of a week or ten days ago.

Mrs. J. R. White, chairman of the refreshment committee, gave a report of her work and especially of the dance and entertainment at the Bachmann home.

Mrs. Duffield, chairman of the tin foil committee, reported sales of tin foil to the amount of $19.

Mrs. Carter, chairman of the knitting department gave an exceedingly interesting report, stating that she had 414 knitters at work. Important items of work accomplished in Mrs. Carter's department will be given

HONOR LIBERTY BOYS

On Tuesday evening a delightful gathering was held at 125 South Kenwood street, where the Misses Bernice and Ruth Wood were hostesses to the Epworth League of the First Methodist church. The affair was in honor of Messrs. Harry and Mark Francy who will leave soon for one of the army cantonments. The evening was spent in various mirth provoking games and there was not a dull moment. Dainty and appetizing refreshments were served. One of the interesting things of the evening was the presentation to the Epworth League by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Matthiesen, of a beautiful service flag to be hung in the League room of the church. Mr. Matthiesen was president of the young people's organization during the past year. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Miss Belle Mattley. About fifty young people were present and their best wishes will follow their soldier boys.

ORGANIZE NATIONAL GUARD

All men between the ages of 18 and 40 are invited to attend the meeting at the Glendale Chamber of Commerce tomorrow evening when the completion of the organization of Company A National Guard of California will be made. Stephen P. Veselich, of Tropico, who is secretary to the recruiting officer, will be present to make explanations to any who are interested.

EVACUATION HOSPITALS

DR. ROCHESTER APPOINTED ON STAFF OF SECOND FORMED IN UNITED STATES

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rochester have just heard from their son, Dr. Alex S. Rochester, who is stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, that he has been appointed on the staff of the second evacuation hospital formed in the United States. Dr. Rochester is one of the many young men who have given up a promising civil career to offer their lives to their country in her hour of peril and this honor that has come to him is well deserved. A graduate of the Jefferson Medical college, he spent three years as superintendent of the San Lazarro hospital, the largest in Manila. Returning to the United States he decided to specialize in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat and went to Vienna where he studied with this end in view. He was well established in his practice in Chicago when he heard the call of his country and offered his services. He was made First Lieutenant in the Medical Reserve corps and while waiting for his assignment spent several weeks with his parents in Glendale. We are proud to think of him as one of our Glendale boys.

The evacuation hospital is something new in American military parlance. It corresponds to the British Casualty Clearing Station. It operates between the field hospital just back of the trenches where the men are given emergency care, and the base hospital where they are sent to recuperate. Naturally the physicians at the evacuation hospital work at high tension as all of the operating is done there. In the case of troops sent abroad each division of 27,000 men will be provided with 35 surgeons to a base hospital, 16 to an evacuation hospital and 7 to a base hospital.

Y. M. C. A. TEAMS BUSY

The teams selected to conduct the big Y. M. C. A. drive for funds began work yesterday and already $1151.25 has been secured. Sergt. Sadler, of Camp Kearny, who is assisting in this work here spoke to the High School students in assembly Tuesday afternoon, presenting the need of the Y. M. C. A. among the soldiers and met with a very enthusiastic response. Large numbers of subscription cards were taken by the students who wished to make gifts themselves or secure subscriptions among their families and friends. On Wednesday morning one of the high school girls returned $25 which she had secured among her friends.

Wednesday afternoon at the special exercises in the high school, Rev. T. F. McCrea announced that the Y. M. C. A. is trying to raise $35,000,000 to keep the home fires burning for a million soldier boys, an average of $35 for each boy. He asked the high school students to endeavor to raise $35 for each of the nineteen former students of the school then sitting on the platform in the uniform of the United States. The students voted to try to raise this amount, a total of $665.

A list of those who have subscribed to the Y. M. C. A. War Work fund will be published tomorrow.

BRITISH AMBULANCE SOCIETY

The regular meeting of the Glendale branch took place last Monday afternoon, about 16 members being present and one or two new helpers. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. William Walters in a graceful little speech, tendered her resignation as president of this organization on account of her leaving Glendale for Los Angeles. Mrs. Walters was elected president when the society was first organized in December, 1915, and was re-elected last May. Her resignation was accepted with regret and a rising vote of thanks given for her faithful work and generous support in all the endeavors of the Glendale branch. She will be greatly missed by all. Tea was served to the members only at the close of the meeting in the work room. Next Monday at "Ye Ginger Tavern" afternoon tea will be served. Mrs. Daniel Campbell will be the hostess. The general public is cordially invited.

CREATIVE GENIUS

DISPLAYED BY MEMBERS OF CLUB AT TUESDAY AFTERNOON'S MEETING

In providing a program of original compositions by its own members, the Tuesday Afternoon Club was not without precedent in the history of the organization, but it is doubtful if a more brilliant aggregation of home talent was ever brought together by the club at one time than that presented at Tuesday's session in observance of Charter Day.

The meeting was called to order at the accustomed hour of 2:30 by the president, Mrs. Wm. W. Ramsay, and the usual routine business disposed of. Announcements were read by the general curator, Mrs. Blake Franklin, and some new business transacted.

Mrs. E. S. McKee, chairman of the local relief committee, announced that she had arranged to have the proceeds from the afternoon and evening picture shows at the Palace Grand theater, Friday of this week, for the furtherance of the work of her committee, the club appropriation for that purpose being insufficient to meet the demands. Club members were urged to attend.

At the close of the business session Sergeant Martin Sadler, of Camp Kearny, was introduced by Mrs. Ramsay. He spoke briefly in behalf of the Y. M. C. A. war relief and related personal experiences and observations while in France in the service of the U. S. government so heart rending that tears came to the eyes of many present. An impassioned plea was then made by Rev. T. F. McCrea in the interest of the same cause. After which Mrs. Ramsay stated that it had been previously voted in executive session that the club subscribe $10.00 to this very important work, and Mrs. Stephen C. Packer announced that she had arranged to give a benefit card party, Tuesday evening of next week, in the Studebaker sales rooms, corner of Colorado and Brand boulevard, the proceeds to go to the Y. M. C. A. fund.

Next in order came the program of the day which was opened by a musical composition for the piano and drums, written by Mrs. L. N. Hagood, entitled "Forty Horse Power," with the composer at the piano. Mr. Milton Brown, a high school senior, accompanied Mrs. Hagood on the drums. Mrs. J. T. Crampton followed with a reading of two poems of her own composition, Mrs. Hagood further demonstrating her genius by improvising an accompaniment on the piano.

Mrs. Annie L. Pack was accorded third place on the program, and her reminiscences of the club during her first term as president for the year 1906-07 were most interesting. She traced the growth of the organization from its inception in 1904 to the date of its incorporation, November 13, 1908. At that time the programs were supplied by the members and their work was of such a character that the papers were applied for by other clubs. This demand resulted in a reciprocity bureau since discontinued. Usefulness was the keynote of their endeavors. Philanthropy was practiced, patriotism was fostered and civic improvements inaugurated. The nucleus of the present creditable library was formed by this small band of women and the present librarian placed in charge. The club also figured in the social life of the city, dispensing open-handed hospitality on memorable occasions with distinction.

Mrs. Martha Morris, who enjoys the honor of being the club's first president under the charter, next ascended the platform. Her paper was in a measure reminiscent and of a patriotic trend, interspersed with bits of verse sometimes original and sometimes borrowed. She was accorded hearty applause at the close and presented with a boquet of flowers.

The next number was a poem by Mrs. Jesse Joseph, read by Mrs. Laurence Ellis, Mrs. Joseph being unexpectedly absent. The following group of songs was then sung by Mrs. Arnold:

Memory Dear, music by Mr. Julius Kranz,

Sand Man's Song, words and music by Mrs. L. N. Hagood.

Mother Wind, music by Mrs. Roger H. Brown.

A poem by Mrs. Mattison B. Jones read by Miss Doris Packer, a group of patriotic verses by Mrs. Nanno Woods, three bright dialect stories by Mrs. Chas. Turck, another patriotic poem by Mrs. B. D. Snudden and a patriotic medley by Mrs. C. R. Boyer completed the program.

The decorations were in the club colors of green and yellow, ferns and chrysanthemums being used in profusion.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Friday. Westerly winds.

H. S. SERVICE FLAG

DEDICATED YESTERDAY IN THE PRESENCE OF NINETEEN BOYS IN UNIFORM

The soldier boys held the center of interest over at the High School Wednesday for it was Service Flag Day. It proved to be one of the most auspicious and inspiring occasions in the history of the schooi. The auditorium was over-crowded with the proud parents and envious students who were gathered together to do honor of the High School boys, both graduate and undergraduates who have entered the service of Uncle Sam.

About 20 of the boys enlisted in the Ninth Company Coast Artillery, occupied the place of honor on the stage which was appropriately decorated by Irene Gervais and Miss Muller with the help of Mr. Alex McDonald. In front of the boys were Dr. Bryant, Sergeant Sadler, Rev. McCrea and Mr. Moyse. The assembly was opened by the little patriotic ceremony that now precedes all of the High School programs. The assembly call was given by Zenus Smith, on the bugle. Margaret Lusby then brought out the flag and Frank Balthis led the audience in the salute to our National Emblem. Afterward the first verse of "America" was sung with a fervor that was never before equalled. The presence of some of our country's protectors brought our nation's perilous condition so much nearer home.

Mrs. Gibson led the orchestra in a patriotic overture and the formal ceremony had begun. Mr. Moyse made a few brief remarks and presented Dr. Bryant, who welcomed the boys back to their Alma Mater. Then the principal speaker of the day, Sergeant Sadler, came forward. He needed no introduction as he had spoken to the students on Tuesday, and he was enthusiastically received. This time he talked more directly to the parents of the boys and brought a message of good cheer and hope that was wonderfully encouraging.

Mr. McCrea talked on the work being done by the Y. M. C. A. and asked the students to pledge themselves to "Give till it hurt."

The flag itself was then presented by Miss Harriet Williams. It is a beautiful emblem and is the work of Miss Muller and Miss Williams, and it is largely by their efforts that such a complete list of our honor role was made. However, even now there possibly are a few omissions which will be corrected if the High School is notified.

Mr. Moyse accepted the flag and thanked those who had spent their time in its making. He then read the list of the boys, each of whom was represented on the flag by a star. The list was unusually long and made us realize how many of the Glendale boys are really on their way to the front. The program in the auditorium closed and the crowd thronged out in front of the main building. Sergeant Sadler made a few more remarks and the flag was raised by Miss Williams, while the call to the colors was played. Mr. Moyse started a receiving line and called on all who wanted to shake hands with the boys to come forward, but their soldier hearts were too modest and they beat a hasty retreat. This closed the services of a day that will always be remembered with mingled sadness and pride. The complete list of the boys who are represented on the flag will be published tomorrow.

At our request, the following boys of Company Nine, Los Angeles Coast Artillery Corps, located at San Pedro were given permission to attend our exercises in their honor:

Miller Fishel,
Howard McGillis.
John Sharpe.
Maxwell Sheriger.
Carleton West.
Frank Budway.
Clifford Riggs.
Harold Latter.
Ralph Carmichael.
George Grist.
Eugene Dopp.
Donald Barager.
Carleton Padelford.
Joe Fishel.
Homer Plannette.

Alfred Knight of Lower Reservation, San Pedro.

The Congregational church missionary society is holding an all day session today at the church. The members bring the lunch which is served in picnic style. The mite boxes are being opened today for the "Ingathering" celebration for Thanksgiving. Boxes of clothing are also being packed for the Congregational mission school at Alberquerque, New Mexico.

FIGHT OR PERISH

Questioning more intelligent canvassers who have been working on the food saving campaign in the past week will disclose some disturbing facts, says an Eastern exchange. These house to house canvassers in many cases have been met with indifference, with positive refusals, and the oft-repeated "England's war," and "why should we send our men to France?" The German propaganda, its agents and its dupes are still here.

Here is a peril that needs to be shelled as steadily and persistently as the British and French commanders press against the foe. Disloyalty must be met. The ignorant must be taught, and the adder ear of the indifferent opened to the fact that this is our war, that we entered it to save our free institutions, that we are fighting for our national existence, and that at no time has the peril been greater than now.

What is Germany fighting for? Her Emperor has told us in his proclamation to the army early in 1915, in which he said:

"The triumph of the Greater Germany, which some day must dominate all Europe, is the single end for which we are fighting."

The single end!

Since the war began evidence has accumulated to convince the most unwilling that this war is the result of long and carefully worked out plans to accomplish a definite purpose. This war, with the domination of Europe is but a part of the larger and more ambitious plan.

At the Potsdam conference in July, 1914, held for the purpose of ringing up the curtain on the first act of the great drama, the Kaiser said:

"From childhood I have been under the influence of five men, Alexander, Julius Caesar, Theodoric II, Frederick the Great and Napoleon. Each dreamed a dream of world empire; they failed. I am dreaming a dream of German world empire, and my mailed fist shall succeed."

A generation ago John Lord wrote: "What Rome was, Prussia aspires to be." Was it prophecy, or did that keen historian read the future in Prussia's past?

At this conference the Emperor showed a map of the old Roman Empire, with all the principal countries as its vassals. That was what Rome was. What does Prussia aspire to be?

He exhibited another map showing the world when his dream came true. France, England, Ireland, Russia—in fact, all Europe, was shown as Germany. Across the water was the United States with "Germany" as its name. "We will have our heel on the head of every nation on earth, said he, "and the United States and Canada in three years."

This is why it is our war, and why we send soldiers to France to fight before it is too late. We must fight now or perish.

TRANSLATES FROM POLISH GREATEST OF SLAVIC POEMS

Believing that vast relations are going to grow up between the United States and Russia and other Slavic countries, the department of Slavic Languages of the University of California is endeavoring to promote understanding and good will by translating into English some of the masterpieces of Slavic literature. Now Professor George Rapall Noyes has translated from the original Polish an epic which many critics declare the chief masterpiece of Slavic poetry. This is "Pan Tadeusz, or the Last Foray in Lithuania (a story of Life among Polish Gentlefolk in the years 1811 and 1812)"—the most famous work of the Polish poet, Adam Mickiewicz. The volume constitutes a part of the "Semi-Centennial Series" through which the faculty of the University of California are memorializing, by scholarly production, the fiftieth anniversary of the chartering of the University by the State.

In spirited and flowing prose, Professor Noyes has given to the English-speaking world the brilliant pages of this great Polish epic. Here is pictured the return of young Thaddeus from his studies, to share in the life of the Polish gentry of Napoleonic times There are vivid pictures of feasting and flirting, of hunting and fighting, of sorrow and of joy. Vanished and gone as is the atmosphere of private foray in which the story is set, the tale is rich in eternal human nature.

Professor Noyes. who teaches not only Russian but also Polish and other Slavic languages in the University of California, with assistants who teach Serbo-Croatian and Bohemian, was trained at Harvard and in the University of Petrograd, and since 1901 has been head of the Department of Slavic Languages of the University of California. He has written or edited a number of valumes, including a critical edition of Dryden, a volume of plays by the great Russian dramatist, Ostrovsky, translated by students of the University of California, and in collaboration with Leonard Bacon, a volume of translations of "Heroic Ballads of Serbia."

THE NECK OF THE WAR BOTTLE

France is not a sea-going nation. With few large harbors, not compelled by insularity like her neighbor Britain to rely upon the sea, France lacked nautical sense. When Joffre asked for an American army in France, his request came to a nation impoverished in her merchant marine. We, too, lack nautical sense—or at least, the American Government lacks it. Hence the slogan still being sounded by Secretary McAdoo of "A Million American Men in France by Spring." But a million Americans in the trenches means millions of tons of well-directed shipping. It means the diversion of American ship tonnage which for three years past has been working at speed, under presure of the highest shipping rates the world has known, supplying the military needs of the Entente nations. Will their needs diminish now?

The 1,200,000 to 1,500,000 tons of French munition supplies still awaiting transportation on American docks is one answer to that question. Of what avail is it to withdraw supplies from the French munition works and from the highly skilled and efficient French soldiery that is holding three-fourths of the western line in order to supply a raw and unseasoned American army? Furthermore, the requisitions of General Pershing are already straining American shipping resources. What will they be, what American ships will meet them, when we have our "million men in the trenches?"

"Build us ships," and "Where are our ships?" and "Build ships, all kinds, so long as they are fast enough; only give us ships"—that was the burden of Lord Northcliffe's appeal in Cleveland on Monday. Contrary to the principle adopted by France and America, Britain has entered upon no move in the great war without considering this all-governing factor of ships. Without making it the governing factor of American preparations through all departments of government, through all the industries of the people, throughout the prescriptions of the draft and of training for American armies, and in our allowances of supplies for the European Allies, our war efforts will be largely wasted. The millions of the Liberty Loans will be ill-spent. Until next spring there can be but few new ships. We must engineer the earliest and most important drive of the American war against the Central Empires with the limited supply of existing shipping. All our war processes must be intensive. For ocean transportation is the neck of the war bottle.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

INDEPENDENCE OF CLOTHES

It is surprising to see how a suit of clothes carefully brushed and put away renews itself and comes out with almost the original lustre. In these days of renunciation it is worth while to postpone the buying of the usual supply of clothing until a test is made of the respectability of the suit in its second year. Respectability in men and women is in England not dependent upon clothes. Indeed, it is wonderful to see an aged couple of high rank traveling, waited on by flunkies in spotless livery, while the noble lord and lady are as dowdy as if they had come out of an old couple's home. At one of our conferences at Saratoga the president one day carried on his arm a light overcoat so shabby that a young minister said that no minister would dare to wear such a coat. It takes some courage and much self-respect to make a man independent of his clothes. Just now it might be considered a mark of patriotism if a man should be believed to contribute to the common cause of national defense and foreign good-fellowship the money he saved by not replenishing his wardrobe this season.—Christian Register.

Personals

City Manager T. W. Watson, has been confined to his home for several days on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hagood of 129 S. Jackson street, motored into Los Angeles to visit the Automobile Show Tuesday evening of this week.

Little Robert Lehman, son of Mrs. C. A. Lehman, 629 North Louise, returned to school yesterday after several days in bed with a heavy cold.

On Monday Mrs. Paul Hopkins and little daughter, Barbara, of Tropico, were the luncheon guests of Mrs. Earl E. Hitchcock at her home, 1409 West Colorado.

The new building for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, which is being erected on South Brand boulevard is nearing the completion of the third story.

Thomas Phillips with the Misses Katherine and Bess Phillips, were guests for dinner and the evening on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. R. Millar, on North Kingsley Drive, Los Angeles.

Glendale Commandery No. 35, Knights Templar, will give a grand charity ball for the benefit of Glendale charities on the evening of Wednesday, November the 28th at the Masonic hall.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Knold and daughter Arline, of Ontario, are guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell, 304 East Second street. They will visit the auto show while here.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles Wallace Kimberly, of San Fernando road, who was injured in an elevator accident in Los Angeles, October 2, will be pleased to know that she is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilson, who on account of having property interests in Riverside, spent several months in that city, have returned to Glendale and are again residing at 325 South Louise street.

Miss Kathryn Dutton of Carrol, Iowa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. L. Smith, 432 Isabel street. Miss Dutton was accompanied west by Miss Ida Wills and Mrs. Ella Wheatly of Halbur, Iowa.

The Misses Ida and Sadie Scripton have returned to the home of their uncle, Rev. C. R. Norton, 373 West Third street, after a very pleasant visit during the past two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chilson of San Pedro.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Dunham, of Walla Walla, Wash., arrived in the city yesterday after a three months' auto tour of the western states. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham are very favorably impressed with Glendale and contemplate making this their home.

The Kensington Club, of the W. R. C. of Tropico, met yesterday with Mrs. Nina Richards, West Acacia street. The afternoon was spent in knitting for the Red Cross after which refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Eliza Stafford, Mrs. Effie Ripley and Mrs. Tissdale.

Mrs. Jack Boettner, Red Cross cooked food commandeer, reports that indications point to an unsually good business next Saturday at the headquarters next to the post office. Advance orders are already coming in for tamales, it having been announced that Mrs. Yorba-Sowle, of the Casa Verdugo restaurant would donate three dozen tamales. Donations of any kind in the cooked food line will be gladly received. Mrs. Boettner's telephone is Glendale 839M.

At the men's and boys' meeting at the First Methodist church tonight the pastor will speak on "Curbstone Citizenship." The meetings are proving interesting and profitable. Somethings that come close home have been discussed this week. The addresses are straight-forward, frank discussions of vital things. The theme for tomorrow night will be "When is a steamship, an aeroplane, or a Christian?"

Mr. F. T. Kincaid, of Fairbanks, Alaska, who has just returned from a visit to a brother in Downey, spent the week end with his sister, Mrs. J. P. Shropshire at her home, 445 Everett street. Mr. Kincaid is now on his way to visit another brother at Sunland. After a 17 years' sojourn in Alaska, Mr. Kincaid is wholly won over to that country. He enjoys Southern California, but he complains of the cold.

The Red Cross is sending out a second appeal for yarn. The first supply is exhausted and more must be had at once. The yarn which will be used for making "afghans" for our soldiers does not necessarily have to be of any particular color. Most everyone has odds and ends which are useless to them, but very useful to the Red Cross. Bring anything you have in the line of yarn to the Red Cross headquarters at once and relieve this immediate want.

PERSONAL THANKS FROM THE GLENDALE RED CROSS CHAIRMAN

It is a pleasure to be able, personally, to express my gratification and appreciation of the achieved results of the "Glendale Red Cross Drive" made by fifty men of about equal eminence in proved ability and worthy patriotism.

In these days of "storm and stress" on mental and financial resources, it takes a great deal of moral courage to approach our friends and neighbors and insist on the necessity of doing so many stupendously significant things, each one seemingly of the greatest importance for the well-being of our country.

We are passing through times of mental pressure and heart-breaking, because of the necessity for sending our splendid boys into the world's great battle to help demonstrate righteous principles, but we are cheered by our noble townspeople who responded so heartily to the efforts of "the fifty men" who left all their private enterprises without one selfish thought, in order to achieve the means whereby our intelligent, industrious women could purchase materials to convert into garments to make comfortable our soldier boys, and those of other lands who long to see the mark—"Made in the United States." What a blessed thing it is to be able to work for the development of the Red Cross supplies in such a period as the one in which we live, and how much we have to be thankful for, that we live among such generous, patriotic people, who appreciate the privilege of working and giving to such a soul inspiring cause as helping to lighten the sorrows of the world. and bring harmony into the trenches of strife and devastation.

I have the honor to remain,

Yours sincerely,

J. H. BRALY.

WEST GLENDALE WHITE RIBBONERS

The West Glendale W. C. T. U. met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pierson Hanning on Hawthorne street.

The services were opened by singing "America," after which Mrs. Cook read the eighth chapter of Luke and Mrs. Nesbit led in prayer. Mrs. Florence Smith read a letter from the state president of the W. C. T. U. containing some useful suggestions in reference to the work of the union. The motion was made and carried that we divide our union into two sections and hold a contest for the purpose of securing new members. Mrs. Hanning and Mrs. Waller were appointed as recruiting officers over the two sections. The West Glendale union is to make 16 comfort bags for our soldiers, and Mrs. Hartley was appointed as head of a committee to oversee this work.

The subject of the meeting was "What have we to be thankful for" and the members gave their reasons for being especially thankful. After the meeting adjourned a social time was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

MEETING OF CHAPTER L

An all day meeting of Chapter L, P. E. O. was held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger, Wednesday, Nov. 14, Mrs. Charles Homer Temple, Mrs. C. W. McFadden and Mrs. J. C. Danford being the assistant hostesses. The program topic was "The P. E. O. Educational Fund," in charge of Mrs. Robert A. Blackburn assisted by Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. A. L. Bryant and Mrs. Frank Campbell and was most interestingly presented. The guests were Mrs. Herbert Smith of Chapter A. H. of Tropico; Mrs. D. H. Smith of Chapter A. T. of Los Angeles, and Mrs. A. L. Weaver and Mrs. Wilde of Chapter B. A. of Glendale.

MUSICAL AT MRS. POTTER'S

There will be a musical at the home of Mrs. Potter, 321 Everett street, Friday afternoon. The proceeds of this musical will be used to purchase sweaters for the Glendale Coast Artillery boys. A good attendance at this entertainment is desired.

SALVAGE DEPT. A. R. C.

Saturday, November 10 newspapers and magazines were collected. Owing to a shortage of machines, a considerable part of the town could not be covered then, but it will be before the next collection Saturday, which will be November 24. Hereafter any driver wishing to cover his route at his own convenience may do so. That will make work nearly every evening for the children willing to tie the papers at 312 South Brand.

Here also we will make Red Cross roses, cover Christmas boxes, make scrap books and ration heaters for the soldiers, and also posters, besides collecting all sorts of junk.

If you have any old metal that you wish to donate, just call up Mrs. H. V. Brown, Glendale 1129 and she will come and get it. There is a special demand for old lead, such as dress-maker's weights, for lead seems to be scarce.

Mrs. R. M. Brown, Glendale 730W will be glad to receive all the bottles available, which she will sort and clean—if they are dirty—and find a market for.

Mrs. Henderson who may be found at 312 South Brand every Wednesday, will receive all the old rubber of every sort, besides old gloves and shoes, which she will sell, or donate to the department that can use them. Leather, for instance, is used to line aviators' coats.

Miss Helen Esterly, of the high school, with other student helpers, will make Red Cross posters for any of the departments wishing them.

Mr. Philips Davis, also of the high school, will have charge of the making of ration heaters. Please save your candle ends and scraps of paraffine for him.

Mr. Wm. Taylor, another high school student, will operate the paper baler which we are surely going to get. Even if we had to buy it outright, it would soon pay for itself.

The work in this department is unromantic, dusty and generally unattractive, but since July 1, 1917, it has turned into the Red Cross from papers and magazines and donations alone $256.35 and we now have a load ready that will bring that total close up to the $300 mark, if not beyond it.

The Sunset Telephone company has promised us about a ton of old telephone directories and that in itself, will be about $10 or $12.

To the following people we owe our success in getting everything tied before dark last Saturday:

Services will be held in the Episcopal church on Sunday, November 18 at 11 a. m. The Guild of the church will meet with Mrs. McCue, on Stephens Way, Tuesday, November 22.

Mrs. McClemath, of Glendale, was a caller in Tujunga on Tuesday.

Frank Green of San Pedro spent Sunday with his parents.

The Red Cross branch of the Woman's Club will hold an entertainment at Bolton Hall, on November 27 for the benefit of the French Red Cross. The proceeds will be used to purchase material for garments to send to the children of France and Belgium. Many garments have been sent in to the ladies, who are busily engaged in remaking and modeling them over. Everyone in the colony is asked to help sew or send in any garments that can be utilized for this purpose. There will be a program of entertainment, a gypsy booth where you may have your fortune told, and a "melting pot," in which to dump your old gold, silver, lead or brass. Coffee and tea with cakes will be served, and a social time enjoyed. It won't cost you anything to get in, but it may to get out. Let everyone in the colony attend, and give the ladies who have worked so faithfully for the Red Cross, a little encouragement and cash. Don't forget the date Tuesday evennig, November 27th.

Ernest Wieman, who has returned from camp Lewis, is visiting with his parents. Mr. Wieman on account of his being an oil driller is released from service to go on at his work as drillers are necessary and scarce and the need for oil great.

Mr. Heffleman and wife have moved to Hollywood for the winter. Last week while absent from their home here, some vandal cut and hacked with a knife, some fine trees on the place nearly ruining them. This of course, is boy's work and some one should get on their track and make an example of them, as this is not the only mischief that has been done.

On Hallowe'en night some boys in their freakish pranks stoned the house of Prof. Colwell on Los Angeles street. The next night they again began their work, and the old gentleman went to the door. As he opened it a rock hit him on the forehead and he fell to the ground. The miscreants fled, and the old gentleman as soon as he could recover, went to a neighbor's for help. There is need for such vandalism to cease. If parents cannot control their boys, some one else should.

News from Camp Lewis, says that our genial Joe Foster, is on the sick list, which we are sorry to hear.

Mr. Johnson who has been absent from the store for the past two weeks is again on duty.

Mr. Lamson, the photographer, has moved to Pasadena for the winter.

Mr. Hartley sold 26 turkeys this week at 29 cents live weight. This seems to be the average price for them in this section. The boys in blue will have turkey for Thanksgiving for which we are glad, although but few of us will be able to pay the price. Never mind a good fat hen or duck is not to be sneezed at, especially if we have plenty of "thankful dressing" served with it.

Mrs. Linnaberry and Miss Osgood were in Los Angeles on Wednesday.

Mr. Armour of La Crescenta has rented the home of Frank Herrick for the winter on San Ysidro road.

We are very proud of our knitting league which last week sent out five mufflers, 5 pairs of socks, 2 pairs of wristlets, two bandages and one sweater, and for this week, two sweaters, six pairs of socks, four pair wristlets and six bandages. Every week we sent out as many or more and our knitters increase in numbers daily. We still have plenty of yarn for sweaters, mufflers and wristlets.

Miss Rose Avery is spending a few days at her cottage on Sunset boulevard.

Miss Alice Green has returned from her visit at Whittier.

Mrs. Will Jones and daughter, are installed in the house belonging to Mrs. Storms.

Mrs. Copeland and son of Detroit, Michigan, have rented the E. Deming Smith house for the winter.

Mrs. Smellie of Sunset boulevard, who has been quite ill, is reported much better.

Mr. Springer, who has occupied the Westell house all summer, has moved to Los Angeles for the winter.

Dean & Co. report much activity in real estate, both in sales and exchange. For a home place, both in regard to climate, water and social conditions, we think it is hard to beat. In fact it is "our own home town," and we are going to boost it so long as we live in it.

If you are making a winter garden remember that Fischer has a supply of fresh seeds from Aggler and Mussler. If you are ambitious, you can raise all your lettuce, radishes, spinach, beets and onions, under a frame covered with cheese cloth in a very satisfactory manner.

Don't complain about the weather so long as you are not able to change its condition.

LA CANADA

The regular meeting of the Red Cross was held Tuesday afternoon, November 13. Gauze bandages and hospital shirts were worked on. The Red Cross room will now be kept open on Tuesdays from 10 o'clock in the forenoon until five o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Goddard will have charge of the room Tuesday morning and different directors will have charge of the room in the afternoon. Remember to do your bit.

The regular meeting of the Improvement association will be held Saturday evening, November 17. A little Thanksgiving playlet will be given by the following children: Janet Metzger, Lois Griffin, Violet Hall, Adams Bolton, Hally Griffin, Honore Griffin, Alta Lea, and Catherine Maynard. A vocal solo by Florence Pate and piano solo by Elsa Anderson. Several girls from Miss Housam's room are planning to give a doll show in the rest room. A small admission will be charged, the proceeds going to the Red Cross. Refreshments will be served.

The regular meeting of the "Busy Fingers" was held Tuesday afternoon November 13. These little people are showing intense interest in their knitting. Several have become so proficient in knitting wash rags that they are now knitting mufflers for the soldiers.

At the La Canada Congregational church last Sunday, a large and appreciative audience listened to Dr. D. B. Scott's discourse. Let us urge the people of the vicinity to come to hear the thoughtful and timely sermons of this man of wide experience. Rev. Jesse Mitchell of Los Angeles, will preach in exchange with the pastor, at the morning service. At 7:00 p. m. the Christian Endeavor Society will meet. The topic is "Foreign Mission Boards and Their Achievements" At 7:30 p. m. the sixth chapter of Matthew will be studied, under Mrs. Scott's leadership, according to the following plan: (1) The adoption of what practices will prevent hypocracy according to this chapter? (2) Classify the chapter's teachings concerning prayer. (3) Is verse 8 an argument against prayer? (4) In what ways were Pharisees and Gentiles unlike in prayer? (5) In what ways were the disciples to be like the Pharisees and Sadducees and in what way unlike them? (6) Trace the argument backward from 6:33 and then forward. (7) What is the logical connection of verses 19-21 with what precedes? with what follows? (8) What is the "recompense" verses 4, 6, 18? (9) Why is the illustration of birds a striking one? of flowers? (10) What progression is found in the chapter, first in itself, then in relation to chapter 5? The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society will be held on Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at the parsonage. Mrs. Leright will be the program leader. An apron and candy sale will be held Friday, Nov. 23, at 3 o'clock in the basement of the church. At 6:30 supper will be served at 35 cents a plate. Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. a fellowship meeting as arranged by the Fellowship Committee of the Association of Los Angeles Churches, will be held at the church. Visiting pastors are expected. This meeting will take the place of the usual mid-week meeting.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trade will be held at the school house Monday evening, November 19 at 8 o'clock. Members are requested to be present and assist in the election of a new board of officers. There are many things of public interest that the organization should take up and with a board of officers selected from the present and prospective members a new lease of life might be secured.

A movement is on foot to get Sunset boulevard rocked and oiled, through the county authorities, from the junction with Michigan avenue to the Fitzgerald ranch. This would be a great gain to the people of this village. At the present condition of the road is bad.

Contractor C. E. Blake has a contract for building a large concrete reservoir at La Crescenta.

FIELD OF AVIATION

Major R. Perfetti of the royal Italian flying corps, head of the Italian aeronautic mission in the United States, in a recent statement said:

"Whenever there have been considered plans for building the tens of thousands of aeroplanes needed with which to strike Germany through the air it always has been found that the aerial program was being limited by the problem of shipping the aeroplanes to Europe after building them here in America, because it would take most of the tonnage available to carry the tens of thousands of aeroplanes needed and which the United States can build but cannot deliver. I am glad to be able to say now that there is a solution to this problem at hand and the United States government or any group of patriotic Americans can test it for a few hundred thousand dollars, although I hope that not less than $5,000,000 will be set aside.

"The plan is to take the latest Italian air cruisers, which can carry 25 passengers, and build another even larger air cruiser, the designs of which have just been completed by the same Italian engineers who designed and built the 25 passenger machine, and fly these machines across the Atlantic.

"We will be glad to undertake not only to supply the machines, but to fly them across the Atlantic for the United States government or for patriotic people who may undertake to do this."

Cuba to Send Airplanes to France

Colonel Manuel Coronado, member of the Cuban senate and editor of the newspaper La Discusion, has added a new phase to Cuba's alliance with the United States in the war against Germany by organizing an aviation unit which, it is announced, will be offered to France, with complete equipment in the near future.

Colonel Coronado's plans called for a body of 25 trained aviators to comprise the escadrille, but already 33 youths who are representatives of the best families of Cuba have volunteered to take the prescribed aviation course and individually to bear the expense of their airplanes and equipment. Many of the volunteers for the escadrille are graduates of French universities, and all speak French and are aviation enthusiasts.

Italy's Big Airplanes

Italian genius has developed the large Caproni triplanes, the fast Pomillo, Macchi, S. I. A., Savoya, Verduzio, and other most efficient aeroplanes, which now hold all the world records, including the record for useful weight carried, which is close to five tons; the greatest speed, the latest Pomillo making 157 miles per hour; the largest distance covered in a single flight, which happened a short time ago, when an Italian officer flew 920 miles from Turin to Naples and return, without stop, which took only about ten hours.

America's Aviation Field

America is to have the biggest aviation field in the world. It is now under construction at the American aerial base in France. The site of the aviation camp is ten miles square and the barracks, now being constructed, will house 15,000 men. Hangars are being built to accommodate enough machines for use by these men. In 60 days sufficient hangars will be completed to accommodate 1,500 aeroplanes. The remainder will be finished by January.

BLINDNESS OF JUSTICE IN UTAH

The question of right and wrong is a peculiar game. Recently the State Legislature of Utah being a little behind in their work, and about to adjourn, set the clock back in order to legally pass some laws before midnight. And the same night they arrested a man here for keeping open after midnight. He evidently did not have any reverse gear on his clock.

Another instance along these same lines:

Utah is very strict against gambling. But I was reading last night an article by Judge A. W. Agee, of the district court here, telling how they select the grand jury. He says:

"The names of 400 taxpayers of this county are selected to serve as jurors during the present year.

"The law requires that these names shall be placed in the jury box and the county clerk at least fifteen days before any term of court begins at which a jury is required, shall draw from this box such number of names of persons to serve as grand or petit jurors as the judge may direct. This drawing must be made in the presence of the county attorney and the county treasurer, and after the box containing the names has been thoroughly shaken."

I am not finding the slightest fault with this method, mind you. I only quote it to show that what is right in one place is wrong in another. Drawing numbers out of a box or a wheel—for dollars—is wrong; while drawing names out this way—where perhaps a man's life is at stake—is right.

I ran across another peculiar quirk of the law here. A liquor dealer in Salt Lake City cannot ship liquor to Ogden in the same state. But he can ship it to some little town just over the line in an adjoining State and then reship it back to Ogden.—Wm. M. Cressy in Bridgeport Life.

RUSH OF BRAINS TO THE HEAD

"Well, old man, I hear that one of your poems has been accepted. Did you have an inspiration?"

"I don't know, really; but I am certain the editor had one."

REAL PATROITISM

The kind of patriotism that counts and that means so much to the successful completion of the task undertaken by the United States, was displayed in a letter received Tuesday by the local draft board, from Mrs. Lucile Sunders, now of San Bernardino. The letter follows:

"I am Lucile Sunders, the wife of Edwin R. Sunders, formerly of 5717 Virginia avenue, Hollywood district, whom you favored with a discharge from military service, September 4.

"At the time of my husband's discharge, I was in poor health and not able to support myself. I am now well and self supporting.

"My husband and I having talked the question over, and, knowing how our country needs all her young men, I am willing that my husband's exemption papers be taken up so he may volunteer his services to his country."

The local board wrote Mrs. Sunders, complimenting her upon her patriotism and complimenting her husband on having such a wife. Mr. Sunder's certificate of discharge has been withdrawn and he will leave for American Lake on November 16.

INCREASE SUPPLY OF MEAT

To stimulate quick increase in the meat supply, the United States department of agriculture will extend throughout the country the pig clubs which have been operated in 15 states and the poultry clubs which have been operated in nine states. In addition to the 33 specialists in hog production and 39 specialists in poultry production who thus will be placed in the field at once, an additional specialist on hog production will be placed in each of the five principal hog-raising states.

Hogs and poultry have been singled out as the live stock on which special efforts will be concentrated in the campaign for increased meat production, because they give the quickest returns. The various pig and poultry clubs have already interested in the rearing of these animals large numbers of young people who otherwise would not contribute to an increased food production.

CORN REJECTED WITH SCORN

If we could induce our allies to make corn as common an article of human food as it is in America, there would be small difficulty in feeding them. The corn crop is so abundant that it would be simply a question of providing ships. But in no respect is mankind more averse to innovation than in the matter of food. Only by degres can man be induced to accept a new article of diet. Not only must he acquire the taste for it, but he must learn to cook it so as to make it palatable.

The experiment of introducing corn as human food has already been made in England, and has failed. The board of guardians of Strood, Kent, bought $150 worth to be served to the paupers in the workhouse, but they refused to eat it and the board decided to sell its entire stock. Corn, or maise, as it is called in England, is regarded as fit only for cattle, and when it was offered to the Strood paupers they probably thought they were classed as such, and for that reason indignantly asserted their manhood. If corn on the cob, well buttered, had first won favor with the rich, it would probably have been more acceptable to the poor.—Portland Oregonian.

KNEW IT WAS GIVEN

THERE ARE SUNSETS AND SUNSETS

A certain Chicago pork packer visiting the mountains was one of a group witnessing a gorgeous sunset in a sky just streaked with lights that reminded one of the glories of the aurora, says the Buffalo Commercial. "Yes," he said, when asked how he liked it; "it certainly is a mighty colorful sunset—certainly is! But you ought to see the one my daughter painted!"
